

Target:
Date & Time	Behavior		Comments	Duration
13.04.2024 T15:00	Communication	Team Coordination: Players communicate with teammates using hand signals or verbal commands to coordinate movements, share information about enemy positions, and execute strategies. Most of the time, they are shouting one to another, revealing information about their location.	A voice chat for every team would be in help removing the need to shout and reveal the location.	1hr
		Calls for Help: Players may call out to teammates for assistance when under fire or in need of backup	SOS signals help in a better identifying of those in need for aid. Make it use the compass for better accuracy
	Players movement	Flanking: Players may attempt to outmaneuver opponents by moving around their position to gain a tactical advantage.	Attack commands may be a to go or stick with voice chat
	Combat action	Reloading: Players reload their airsoft guns by inserting fresh magazines or manually chambering rounds during lulls in combat.	Display ammunition left so there is no case where someone remains whitout ammo
	Sportmanship	Respect: Players display good sportsmanship by congratulating opponents on good plays, acknowledging hits, and adhering to the spirit of fair competition.	Kill / death signals to adjust points in classament accordingly	